

A Review of Senior Show 2012

A Complete Success

-Grace Perry

Throughout every long and complicated school year, there are countless events that are held inside Marblehead High School. The one thing that I have learned over the course of my high school career is that Senior Show has proven to be year after year, a favorite.

According to Answers.com, a talent show is, a show that features amateur performers whose talents may win them recognition or awards. In this case, performing in Senior Show is a reward in itself. Not only do performers get to showcase their interesting talent, they are given a front-row seat to a hilarious, must-see event.

This year, seniors Zach Romanovsky and Joel Katz, hosted the talent show. Together the hosts proved to be the complete and utterly hilarious, dynamic duo. Not only did the hosts have hilarious jokes, they also created a video that poked fun at other seniors and MHS in general.

Joel Katz not only hosted the event but also showcased his piano-playing talent. While Katz played piano, both hosts sang along to creative cover songs. The melodies were absolutely hilarious that poked fun at other seniors and MHS inside jokes. Katz was also in an act in which he played the song Jar of Hearts.

Shortly after the show, I got a chance to talk to some audience members. Liza Tosi, a sophomore at MHS, absolutely loved the show, she notes, "I loved all of the performances! The hosts were hysterical." Every single person I talked to, agreed with Liza. Laurel Perry, my own mother could even agree, she said, "That was the best talent show I have ever been too!" Senior Show was a complete success!

Peyton Weston, Ben Webber and Jen Taranto, all seniors at MHS, were apart of the Senior Show Committee supervised by Patrice Clough. The committee spent countless hours preparing for the successful performance. After choosing Joel and Zach as hosts, they also played a huge role in the organization of the show.

Peyton Weston notes, "The Senior Show was a great way to let the senior class unite as a whole and involve the whole school. We had way too much fun! I'm so glad I was apart of the Senior Show Committee and a performance that was so amazing!"

Dylan Mace, also a senior at MHS notes, "Senior show was funny. I loved how the hosts crossed some lines at some points. Their jokes were very clever. It was overall a good time."

MHS film club has also filmed the Senior Show. If you are interested in a DVD copy of the show please let Grace Perry know. The DVD copies are five dollars each and will be available starting April 1st. Clips of the show will also be on our YouTube channel and or MHTV.
